One of the great things about working at Duke Health is our diverse community. We come from everywhere, and we do just about everything.

We have a lot to share with each other. That's why we've created a private Facebook group*. While the beauty of our backgrounds may differ, we uphold the same commitment to caring for our patients, their loved ones and each other.

 for current Duke Health team members only*

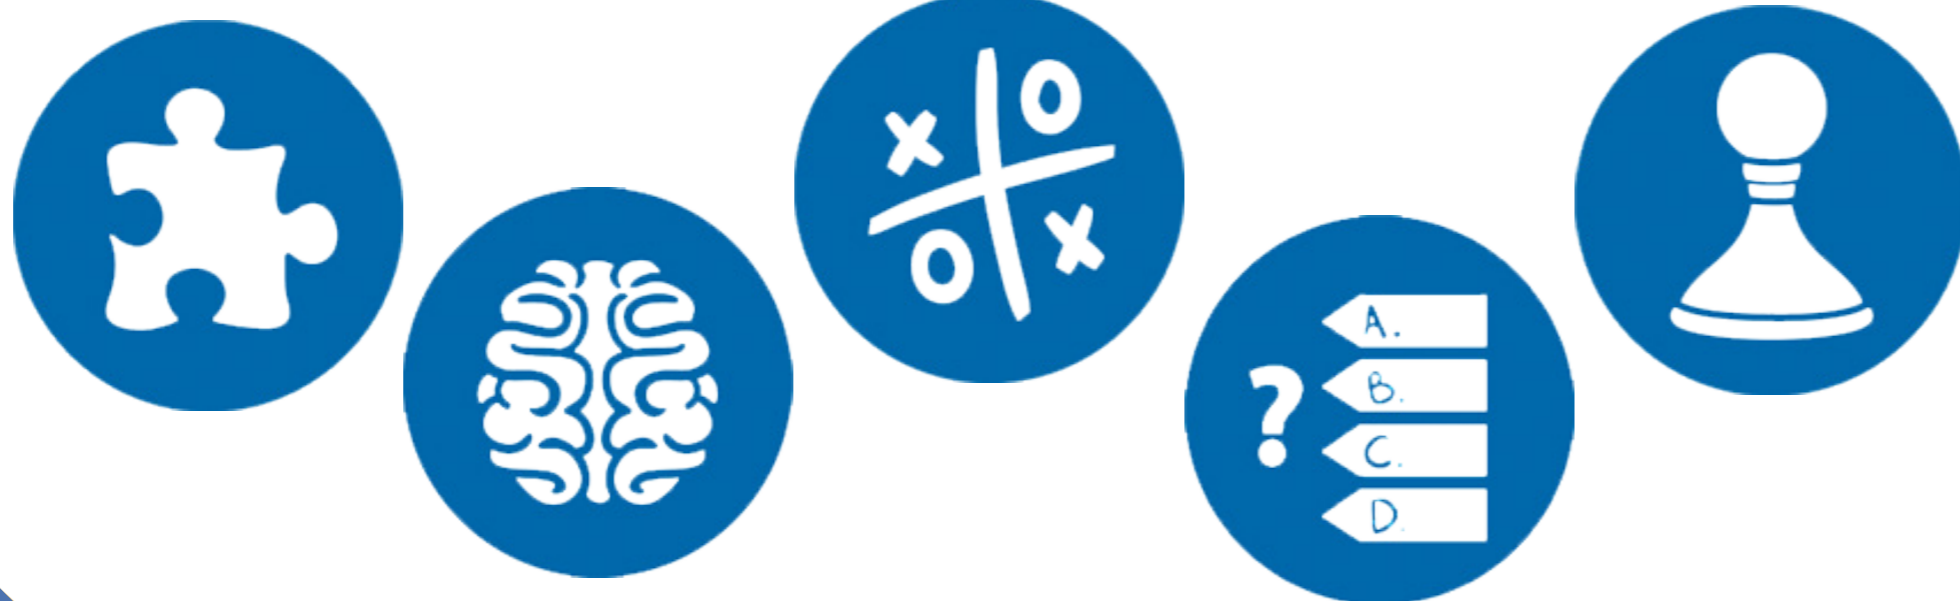

Because of you, we are smart, thoughtful, innovative and caring. You represent what makes Duke unique and special.

Join the Inside Duke Health Facebook Group* to share your news and photos, connect with team members and start discussions about all things Duke Health.
